DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The phrases "said outer support member exerts ... retainer" and "said stop not engaging said inner retainer ... position" in claim 1 are not supported by the original disclosure.
2. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The phrase "said stop not engaging said inner retainer when ... first position" in claim 1 is ambiguous. Claim 1 now defines the stop as "projecting radially outward from said inner retainer" and "not engaging said inner retainer", clearly both structures can not coexist in the fixture.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 1772

4. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hutter ('151). Applicant's arguments have been considered but are not deemed persuasive. The amendments to the claims do not add any structural features to the claims, they merely add things that may happen when the fixture is used or things that the fixture is capable of doing. The fixture shown in the reference is also capable of having its parts 67 and 68 contact each other so that the outer support member 68 exerts an upward force on the inner retainer 67, particularly before the fixture is attached to a flat substrate the two parts may contact each other and the outer support 68 may exert an upward force on the retainer part 67. Therefore, the fixture of the reference meets the instant claim limitations. Concerning the stop not engaging the inner retainer, the flanges 67, 76 may be considered stops projecting outward from the inner retainer. However the threads could also be considered stops and when the inner retainer is removed from the outer support they would not engage each other.

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hutter ('656). Applicant's arguments have been considered but are not deemed persuasive. The amendments to the claims do not add any structural features to the claims, they merely add things that may happen when the fixture is used or things that the fixture is capable of doing. Concerning the last four lines of claim 1, the spokes 28 and 30 clearly restrict movement to a degree between the two parts of the fixture to which they are attached and would do so if moved to a second position. In any event, the instant claims are directed to a product and not a process of using the product that may include steps that reposition certain parts of the product.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hutter ('656) in view of Hutter ('151). Applicant's arguments have been considered but are not deemed persuasive for the reasons of record.

Specification

8. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: numeral 51, referred to on page 9, line 18 of the specification is not shown in the drawings.

Appropriate correction is required.

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any
